Happy Summer! You made it!

Here are your weekly reminders.....

Saturday Biometric Screening – The CFT/CFOP Office will once again be hosting a Saturday Biometric Screening for the wellness plan to accommodate many spouses that cannot participate in school screenings. Go to www.cps.trihealth.com and login. Select Event Registration in the left column. Our screening will take place on Saturday, June 10, 2017 from 8:00 am to 10:30 am. Reserve your spot today!

Congratulations – to Anna Ball, Support Specialist at South Avondale, elected as CFOP President.

Unpaid Leave - Do you know of any teachers who have had to take unpaid leave because there is no national paid leave law? This would include teachers who have had to take unpaid leave or go back to work early for any of the following situations:

- birth or adoption of a child
- serious illness of an immediate family member
- their own serious illness

AFT is looking for members who are willing to share their stories through blogs or op-eds. An AFT staffer would be available to help with drafting and editing.

*Send your info to Julie Sellers at jsellers@cft-aft.org

CFT & CFOP Tentative Agreements – On Wednesday, May 17, the members of CFT & CFOP voted to ratify their contracts. CFT passed with 97% YES vote and CFOP passed with 76% YES. The Cincinnati Board of Education is expected to vote on Monday, May 22, 2017. If accepted, the new contracts will go into effect July 1, 2017.

4th Quarter Overload – Claims are processed and approved by the Claim Review Team, then forwarded to the Board of Education for approval no later than at the Board Meeting on June 12, 2017.

Building Reps – SAVE THE DATE – the Building Representative Workshop will be held on August 6, 2017 at JACK Casino. It is an all day workshop, so please plan to attend.
